

Glendon Agricultural Society Student Scholarship

Award:

Annually, the Glendon Agricultural Society will award a single $1000.00 scholarship; or $500.00 to be awarded to each of two recipients in the event of a tie. This award is based on academic achievement and community involvement. The Glendon Agricultural Society reserves the right to withhold the scholarship if no suitable candidates meet the requirements. The final decision will be based on the discretion of the Glendon Agricultural Society Scholarship Committee.

Eligibility:

The scholarship will be available to any student entering the following:

- An apprenticeship program
- A trades program
- A post-secondary institution, college or university program

Preference will be given to applicants 25 years of age and under. A student is only eligible to receive one Glendon Agricultural Society Scholarship. The scholarship is open to students having been involved in Glendon School and Glendon community events with a current Glendon Ag Society membership.

Educational Requirements:

The applicant must include the following and forward them to the Scholarship Committee prior to the deadline.

- A copy of the most recent Alberta Education Transcript.
- The successful applicant must be entering into continuing education as a full time student.
- A letter from the receiving institution indicating a conditional acceptance to the institution.
- Failure to supply required documentations will result in disqualification.

References:

Candidates are to provide two references letters pertaining to the two main areas of consideration (academic achievement and community involvement.)

Essay:

Candidates will submit a short essay (approximately one to three paragraphs) telling us about yourself and how you think volunteerism benefits our Glendon community.

Deadline:

Applications must be received no later than August 30th of the current year, with proof of acceptance to any postsecondary institution. By submitting this application, the successful recipient(s) of the award gives consent to the publication of his/her name and photo on all Glendon Agricultural Society social media platforms, website and print announcements/notices.
